DE SAN DIEGO

December 2015

From the Oval Office - President's Report

The December Newsletter is dedicated to Dan Wilsey and Bob Williams who passed away in November and December.

Dan was a longtime member 1986 and a past president 1997 who was suffering from ALS the past few years and unable to ride, he attended many of our functions even though he was in a wheelchair.

Bob was also a longtime member 1974 and a second generation member with his dad Homer 1960 and his son Steve became a 3rd generation member in 2010. Bob was an active member until his health prevented him from riding any longer. Both Dan and Bob will be missed.

Our Annual Meeting was held December 15th at Sycuan Golf Resort and we installed our new directors, Rick White – Don Horn and Craig Schmad to join Chuck Gallant – Terry Brown – Scott Vowels and Tim Dirkes as past president directors for 2016.

Our new president is Chuck Gallant – Vice President is Rick White – Secretary Treasurer is Scott Vowels Congratulations to our new board and officers.

It's been an honor to serve as President for 2015, I'm proud of our accomplishments and especially proud of the Board of Directors who supported me. There were some tough times especially losing members who passed away, but true to our tradition they would want us to go on –

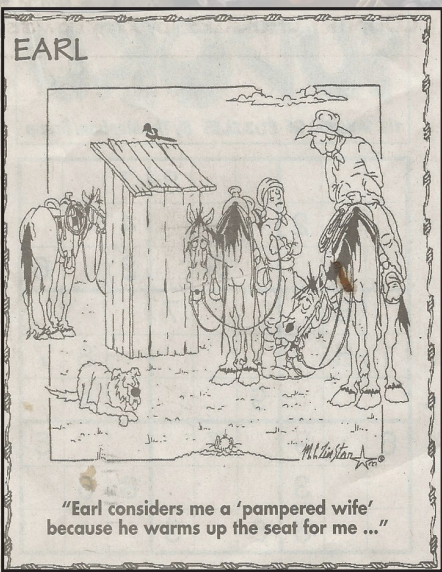

The Annual Dinner Dance will be January 23rd 2016 at Sycuan Golf Resort (the Old Singing Hills) check the Website for information or call me 619-322-1645.

There are no rides scheduled in December or January. Remember – If you change your status –active to inactive or inactive to active please notify Don Horn by January 10th Email or address changes – I'll enter the changes given to me at the Meeting.

Chuck will be sending out information going forward and plans for 2016

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

See you at the Dance or on the Trail -- Tim
