From the Oval Office - President's Report

Please welcome our newest member Tim Laff. Tim and his wife Louise and family live in Descanso. I know that Tim will be a great addition to the Los Senderos Membership.

—Tim Dirkes

Green, his daughter Ester, his granddaughter Shuggy and their friend Sierra. Curtis and Jamie Nelson (glad to see Curtis mending), The Laff brothers and their wives, Buggsy Ponchetti his wife Sue, Steve Tellam and Sherry Songer to name a few. It was a safe ride - with rolling hills, oak groves, green pastures with lots of cows. And no dust, thanks to the rain showers earlier in the week. Please take the time to check out the photos presented by Brett Lesser in the Gallery section on the Los Senderos website.

Western Trivia • March 25, 1977, El Cajon • The Great Escape

The Great Escape from Cuyamaca Meat Co., located on Main St, near Interstate 8, about 1AM. Fifty (50) steers broke out and headed for the hills, the valleys, some to Fletcher Hills, others went as far as Gillespie Field and Mission Gorge Rd. Bill Grove manager of the packing plant, which I believe was owned by Lawrence Daley and Howard Foster (old time Los Senderos Members), called a number of friends and members of the El Cajon Mounted Police, most were members of Los Senderos, BF Bird his brother ED, Ralph and Jim Roelofsz, Bill Helps, among others, to try and gather the cattle. We spent the night in the rain between

Fletcher Hills and the Freeway gathering twenty (20) head - and the next day collecting cattle from yards and businesses in Gillespie Field and the river bottom. We finally had all but 5 gathered by noon and they were now back at the plant. Those 5, had to be shot because of danger to traffic, people, and vehicles. Evening Tribune 3/25/77
