Ride Report for the Corte Madera Ranch Ride

Our June 2016 ride at the Corte Madera Ranch was hosted by Brent Gilman and Diane Powers. Both were in Santa Barbara attending a horse show.

Our ride was led by Rob Paulin, foreman for this beautiful ranch. Weather was hot, but with some breeze and water stops. 40 riders made it to the bar wagon where we were treated to juicy watermelon and drinks. After the bar stop, some chose to take a shorter route back to camp, led by Janet Hays, manager for another CM ranch owner. For those of us who took the longer, scenic route, we were treated to awesome views of the pastureland with grazing longhorn cattle, deer and a nice breeze.

Following the ride we enjoyed an incredible prime rib/chicken dinner prepared by Jim and Jan Sheridan. With over 65 meals served, this was a well-attended event. Great to see non riders, Bud Baker, Pete LaDow, Al Shaw, Larry Alameda, Tom Claycomb and Glen Poorbaugh. Thanks to Ted and Vicki Van Arsdale, the Club offered up beautiful ranch host gifts.

Brent and Diane, many thanks for having us out to the Corte Madera and sharing a little piece of heaven with the Los Senderos members and guests.
