October 2020

President's Report

So, what are the odds after 6 months of solid sunshine, it should rain on a Los Senderos ride event. Well, as luck would have it, it did. But that is no problem for 30+ Los Senderos Members and their guests as we jumped in the saddle to enjoy the Tulloch Ranch in Santa Ysabel. With Ranch Host Cameron Drown leading us out on the trail, the dedicated group rode on through the steady drizzle on this beautiful Ranch. The rain was kind enough to let up during the bar stop and again clear up for a wonderful lunch under the oak trees. Jim Sheridan again provided a tasty meal and Adam kept us well refreshed. To top off the great day, we were joined by Honorary Member Steve Tellam, who decided to join us on the trail ride. There was even a Daley sighting as DIII joined us as a guest of Steve Williams. What a treat.

We want to thank the Drown and Tulloch families for always welcoming Los Senderos to their wonderful assortment of Ranches. Thank you to our monthly ride Chairman Steve Vaughn and his ride committee for making this happen. You guys have done a great job this year.
