President's Report

Fellow Members & Honored Guests,

October's monthly ride was held at the beautiful Corta Madera Ranch in Pine Valley. Mother nature gave us a little rain Saturday night prior to the ride, so Sunday we had no dust and fantastic weather. Rob Pouline, the soon to be retired ranch manager was our trail boss for the ride. As we rode out, we had 16 in the saddle (a little light), but for those of us on the ride it was very picturesque. This ride was totally different from previous years. After a couple hours we were met by Adam and Scott Bernard with the bar trailer, where they served up refreshments to everyone & enjoyment.

As we arrived back at the horse trailers we were met by numerous guests and members who made the trip up for dinner. Speaking of dinner, what a meal Billy (Dinner Bell Catering) put together. I can guarantee no one drove home hungry.

A huge thank you to Steve Vaughn and his ride committee, Tim Dirkes, Chuck Gallant, Dennis Ince and Bill Cuddeback. The effort which they put into each ride is very evident. Thank you to Rick White for the transportation of the bar trailer and also stocking it. Tuck Arnold, thank you for all the great photos for everyone to enjoy. And Don Horn, thank you for all the website work.
