

Foothills Committee Coffee To Open Shakespeare Festival Promotion

By VIRGINIA SPILLER

The Foothills Committee for the Old Globe's 12th annual National Shakespeare Festival will open promotional activities in the East County area with a coffee at 10:30 a.m., June 14 in the La Mesa Woman's Clubhouse.

Committee members met last week in the home of Mrs. Harrison Eagles in La Mesa to write invitations to the coffee.

Mrs. John S. McKee Jr. of Spring Valley, chairman of the Foothills committee, said all interested persons are invited to the coffee. Reservations may be made with Mrs. McKee or Mrs. John S. Campbell.

Mrs. Campbell is chairman for "Foothills Theater Night" July 11. The play will be "Twelfth Night." She said groups and individuals are being encouraged to form theater parties.

The festival will open June 27. Mrs. Steward H. Smith is chairman for the San Diego Festival Committee. She will attend the Foothills coffee to give program and ticket information.

Also present will be Craig Noel, Old Globe resident director, who will discuss the plays.

Members of the Foothills Committee, in addition to Mrs. McKee and Mrs. Campbell, are Mmes. D. Fletcher Wall, tickets; S. B. Chandler, promotion; Harrison Eagles, posters, and Leslie M. Morrisette, publicity.

Members of the Foothills invitations committee for the coffee are Mmes. Robert Day, Peter Shea, Robert Swinson, B. A. Edelbrock, Robert Salisbury, and H. E. Greenlee.

Among hostesses at the coffee will be Mmes. Salisbury, representing the Dental Auxiliary; Edward Brehm, El Cajon Council of Church Women; Donald Hobart, La Mesa Woman's Club; Charles McNair, Foothills Division of the Women's Committee for the San Diego Symphony Orchestra Association; Tom Hawkins, El Cajon Woman's Club; B. F. Miller, Santee Woman's Club, and Gilbert Harelson, Grossmont Community Concert Association Women's Committee.

Preparing invitations for the June 14 Foothills area coffee promoting the annual Shakespeare Festival are, from left, Mmes. Robert C. Salisbury, a hostess; John S. Campbell, theater night chairman, and John S. McKee Jr., Foothills area chairman for the Festival.

Norris Brock, USAF, ret., and Mrs. Brock, 82 Archer St., Pacific Beach.

The bride wore a silk organza gown with embroidered and applied rosebuds and carried white roses and stephanotis centered with white orchids. Her attendants wore yellow linen sheath dresses with bell sleeved bo-ner was best man. Ushers were John Martin, Robert Blakey and Eric Wilmurt.

MRS. BROCK

Mr. and Mrs. Brock will live at 3636 Mission Blvd., Apt. A, San Diego.

The bride is a freshman at San Diego State, where her sorority is Alpha Phi. Mr. Brock is a senior at State. His fraternity is Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Bostonia Beat

Mrs. William White will be installed as president of the Bostonia Woman's Club at a 12:30 p.m. Wednesday at a luncheon meeting in the El Cajon Woman's Clubhouse at Gillespie Field.

Mrs. White will succeed Mrs. Lloyd Cox.

Conducting installations ceremonies Mrs. White will be Mrs. Herbert C. White, Federation chairman for the Southern District and a past president of the El Cajon Woman's Club. She will take as her theme, "Musical Notes."

Mrs. White, who was vice president and program chairman during the past club year, has arranged a musical program for the luncheon.

To be installed with Mrs. White are Mmes. Allen Hughes, first vice president; C. F. Orendurff, second vice president; Donald Pipsword, recording secretary; Clarence Moore, corresponding secretary; George Duto, treasurer; Leslie Heyser, auditor; Lloyd Cox, parliamentary; David Pranter, historian; Marge Bradley and Frank W. Larkworthy, directors at large. The executive board will be hostess group.

Installation Set

Mrs. Donald R. Boysen will be installed as president of the Evening Division of the La Mesa Woman's Club at a 7 p.m. Past presidents will be hostesses.

Mrs. Lee Butterfield, a past president of the division, will be installing officer.

To be installed with Mrs. Boysen are Mmes. Maczko, first vice president; Norman S. Austin, second vice president; W. G. McKittrick, recording secretary; Donald L. Hobart, corresponding secretary; Emil Bauer, assistant treasurer; Clarence C. Ronning auditor; Harry K. Ford, historian, and directors, Cecil E. Johnson, Marlow G. Geiger and William R. Stepek.

The Choral Section of the club will present a musical program. Mrs. Arthur Murrell and Mrs. Jean Castile, guest entertainers, will present record pantomimes.

The decor, featuring driftwood and candlelight, is being planned by the club's Garden Section No. 2 under chairmanship of Mrs. Harry T. Holzman. Corsages will be made by Garden Section No. 1, under chairmanship of Mrs. Charles D. Francis.

DAR Regent

Mrs. J. Earl Greer will be installed as regent of Letitia Coxie Shelby chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at a 12:30 p.m. luncheon Saturday in the Rancho Presidio Hotel in Mission Valley.

Mrs. Greer and Mrs. Robert W. Martin head the planning committee for chapter officers, who will serve as hostesses for the day.

To be installed with Mrs. Greer are Mrs. Frank C. Mayer, vice regent, and Mrs. Sherwood Heckrotte, historian.

Mrs. Frank R. Mettlach of San Diego, state vice regent, will conduct the installation. She also will be luncheon speaker and will report on the Continental Congress held recently in Washington.

Other chapter officers are Mmes. Lester B. Orr, chaplain; Charles W. Ostheimer, secretary; Howard Folsom, treasurer; Robert Martin, registrar; John Montgomery, librarian, and M. A. Richal, parliamentarian.

Senior Activities of San Diego County will sponsor a dance at 7 p.m. tomorrow in the Highland and Landis Community Center.

An orchestra will play for dancing, and there will be door prizes and refreshments. All senior citizens are included. Mrs. Francis H. Thuber, secretary, announced.

Mrs. Mearl L. Baker and daughter, Miss Julie Baker, and Mrs. Carlton Williams and daughter, Miss Gayle Baker, of Mt. Helix spent the Memorial Day weekend in Warner's Hot Springs. They were joined by the Bakers' daughter-in-law, Mrs. George (Bud) Baker, and a baby daughter, Elizabeth, and the Williams' daughter, Mrs. Bernard Martin and young son, Jeffrey, of Del Cerro.

Mr. Baker and his son, George, and Dr. Williams and his son-in-law, Dr. Bernard Martin, spent the weekend on the Los Senderos Memorial Day ride out of Escondido. Riders stayed at the Peavy ranch during the five-day event.

The 10th annual doll festival and bazaar is being held today on the grounds of Our Lady Of Perpetual Help Catholic Church on Lakeshore Drive, Lakeside.

Ham dinner will be served in the church hall from 11:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. There will be tickets for adults and for children. General Chairman Patrick Iannucci announced. Cochairmen for the event are James Salas and Samuel Woods.

Mrs. Stanley Janowitz is chairman for the featured doll booth.

Mrs. Robert Eldridge, publicity chairman, said there will be more than 20 booths, including millinery, food and refreshments, needlework and games, in addition to the hand-dressed dolls.

Proceeds from the event will go to the fund for the school now under construction on the church grounds. The first four grades of the elementary school will open in the fall.

The board of directors of the Women's Committee of the Grossmont Community Concert Association will attend a "triple salad luncheon" given in their honor by their chairman, Mrs. Gilbert Harelson on Thursday in her home at 10055 Pandora Drive, Mt. Helix.

A brief meeting will precede the luncheon.

The president of the Women's Committee, Mrs. John H. Floyd, will be an invited guest. Board members are Mmes. James P. Stewart, Ethyl W. Kennedy, David Oldham, John C. Mayer, Shannon Green, Fred Grosso, Jovita Wilcox, Perry C. Pol-

Relatives Gather

Mrs. Mearl L. Baker and daughter, Miss Julie Baker, and Mrs. Carlton Williams and daughter, Miss Gayle Baker, of Mt. Helix spent the Memorial Day weekend in Warner's Hot Springs. They were joined by the Bakers' daughter-in-law, Mrs. George (Bud) Baker, and a baby daughter, Elizabeth, and the Williams' daughter, Mrs. Bernard Martin and young son, Jeffrey, of Del Cerro.

Mr. Baker and his son, George, and Dr. Williams and his son-in-law, Dr. Bernard Martin, spent the weekend on the Los Senderos Memorial Day ride out of Escondido. Riders stayed at the Peavy ranch during the five-day event.

The 10th annual doll festival and bazaar is being held today on the grounds of Our Lady Of Perpetual Help Catholic Church on Lakeshore Drive, Lakeside.

Ham dinner will be served in the church hall from 11:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. There will be tickets for adults and for children. General Chairman Patrick Iannucci announced. Cochairmen for the event are James Salas and Samuel Woods.

Mrs. Stanley Janowitz is chairman for the featured doll booth.

Mrs. Robert Eldridge, publicity chairman, said there will be more than 20 booths, including millinery, food and refreshments, needlework and games, in addition to the hand-dressed dolls.

Proceeds from the event will go to the fund for the school now under construction on the church grounds. The first four grades of the elementary school will open in the fall.

The board of directors of the Women's Committee of the Grossmont Community Concert Association will attend a "triple salad luncheon" given in their honor by their chairman, Mrs. Gilbert Harelson on Thursday in her home at 10055 Pandora Drive, Mt. Helix.

A brief meeting will precede the luncheon.

The president of the Women's Committee, Mrs. John H. Floyd, will be an invited guest. Board members are Mmes. James P. Stewart, Ethyl W. Kennedy, David Oldham, John C. Mayer, Shannon Green, Fred Grosso, Jovita Wilcox, Perry C. Pollock, W. Carlisle Anderson, John R. Gozzi, Hazen P. Clark W. Virtue, Dale Rees-Streit Jr., Edwin G. Frazier, er, Fred Goodridge, Gordon James M. Smith and M. J. T. Decker, Francis E. Resta, Shelton.

NEVER HAS $12 LOOKED SO FETCHING!

A linen weave of all rayon, that requires very little ironing. $12

In travelsheer printed voile of dacron and cotton $12

Both from our "fashion at a price" collection

Open your 30-day charge or 6 month optional plan.

Mara's

161 E. MAIN, El Cajon
273 THIRD AVE., Chula Vista

Day Observed

Members of Branch and Unit 47, Fleet Reserve Association, participated in services Memorial Day in the Veterans Building, 136 Chambers St., El Cajon.

Mrs. Harold Manzy, chaplain, represented the Unit at the Water Services held on the Tingey.

Vows Recited

Miss Jean Alice Montgomery and Robin Norris Brock exchanged wedding vows in a 7 p.m. ceremony May 26 in the First Methodist Church of El Cajon.

The Rev. Charles Clark of the Santee Methodist Church officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Montgomery of 518 S. Orange Ave., El Cajon. The bridegroom is the son of Lt. Col.

tero jackets and carried yellow and white daisy nosegays.

Her attendants were her sister, Mrs. Frank Mattarocci, matron of honor, and bridesmaids, Misses Marilyn Sutorius, Mei-Ling Bauer and Dexter Fisher. Robert Skin-

CASUAL SALE

ONE WEEK ONLY

Corelli Casuals values to 10.99 8⁹⁰

Lark Casuals values to 8.99 6⁹⁰

LION
Broadway at Sixth
BE 4-6361

LION

open Monday and Friday nights

White Coats

jacket top by Vera 4⁹⁵ skirt 5⁹⁵

THE WHITE FLANNEL COAT 59⁹⁵

The white flannel coat has come to town to stay... wonderful by night cut with dash and distinction 8-16.

Same coat in black silk and rayon 39.95

LION
Broadway at Sixth
BE 4-6361

third floor fourth floor